Latest AMA News

At the recent Council meeting held in March a new by law and policy was approved.

New By law (64)

A masters athlete found to have breached anti-doping rules shall, in addition to any disqualification of results and suspension from competition imposed by the adjudicating authority, have results achieved during a 12-month period preceding the breach disqualified and any records associated with those results forfeited, except where the athlete is able to rebut with evidence that a prohibited substance was not present at the time the results were achieved.

AMA Transgender & Gender Diverse Policy. Full details of the policy are available HERE.

World Masters Rankings

Did you know that access to the World Masters Rankings is included in your membership fee. Check out what Masters athletes from around the world are doing and see how you match up.
